Whig State Convention?
At a Convention of the Whig Members of the Legislature, held at Bangor, on the 10th of June, 1846.

New Steamboat T. F. Secor—Excursion to Belfast and Castine.

The new steamboat T. F. Secor, designed for facilitating the travel between the eastern part of the State and Bangor and Boston, arrived at this city yesterday under the command of Capt. Thomas B. Sanford.

The arrangements for the T. F. Secor are not fully made but we understand that she is expected to connect with the Boston to Bangor, at Belfast, making her trips to Ellsworth, touching at Castine, Sedgewick, Deer Isle and Blue Hill.

The June number of Hunt's Merchant Magazine received by Messrs Smith & Fenno the Bangor Agents concludes the fourteenth volume of the work.

The Moral Influence of Steam The Agency of Steam, considered in its diversified application as resulting from the present advanced state of social improvement—Comparative view of Ancient and Modern Commerce, and the gradual progress of those discoveries and improvements which have prepared the way for steam agency.

The North-west Fur Trade By Hon. William Sturgis, of Massachusetts.
Coal Region of the Schuylkill and Wyoming Valley.

The Washingtonian Mass Temperance Meeting will be held at Oldtown this day—(We trust that as many of our friends as can make it convenient will attend and help forward the good cause of temperance.)

Maine Universalist State Convention.
The annual session of this body will be held in this city, on Wednesday and Thursday of next week. We are requested by Rev. Mr. Nye, to say that he has made an arrangement with the managers of the Steamer Governor, by which passengers will be conveyed from Portland to Bangor and back, for $2.00.

The Salem Advertiser of Saturday states that the American brig Blago, of Beverly, under the command of Lieut. Thos. T. Benter, U. S. Navy arrived at Beverly, on Friday, fifty-five days from Khabend, Africa, as a prize to the U. S. brig Boxer. The Blago was seized under suspicion that she was aiding and abetting slave trade. The captain, mate and crew were examined at the Marshal's office, on Saturday and the evidence is very questionable. Capt. Lovett is one of the most respectable sea captains in Beverly.

Two in Roxbury.
On Sunday morning a fire broke out in the rear of Mrs. Bates' hotel, on Norfolk Hill Roxbury. The flames were communicated to a stable, which with its contents and nine horses, two bowling alleys, several sheds, the rear wing of the hotel, and three wooden dwelling houses, occupied by some dozen Irish families were entirely destroyed.

The Ladies' Weekly and Literary GAZETTE.
Capt. Bogbee has laid upon our table several numbers of a neat monthly publication with the above title, edited by Thomas Drew Jr. and published by Messrs. Brodway, Soden & Co. Boston.

The Liberator publishes the names of about three hundred and twenty persons who have pledged themselves "not to aid, support or countenance the Government in the war with Mexico, but at all hazards, and at every sacrifice, to refuse enlistment, contribution, and aid and countenance to the war."

Illustrated Botany.
The May number of J. K. Wellman's beautiful little monthly work the Illustrated Botany edited by John B. Newman M. D. has been received and well deserves commendation. It possesses the rare merit of happily blending the scientific of science with the ease of popular explanation in a style that is general and readable and is highly esteemed.

PASSAGE OF THE OREGON TREATY By the Senate, 38 to 12.

SEN OFFICE, New York, 9 o'clock, A. M., June 13, 1846.
We have just received the following important news by Special Express to the Sun, and hasten to lay them before our readers.

The Senate has given the advice to the President by the constitutional majority, and a Treaty will immediately be framed on the terms offered by Great Britain.

The vote was 38 yeas to 12 nays. Mr. Corwin was absent from sickness. Mr. Barrow and Mr. Crittenden were absent on business. A fourth vote could have been obtained if it had been necessary. Mr. Atchison did not vote and Mr. Bright was absent.

Postscript.
Correspondence of the N. Y. Sun Washington, Friday, June 12.

Since I wrote you on Tuesday, public opinion here has been divided on the Oregon question. Members of Congress are in declaring the terms as favorable as we could expect or desire.

Our difficulties with Mexico are now settled. Or rather, they will settle themselves as soon as the Oregon question is settled. The Oregon question is now settled.

Our difficulties with Mexico are now settled. Or rather, they will settle themselves as soon as the Oregon question is settled. The Oregon question is now settled.

Every thing looks promising. The Pass of our business men may give place to unbounded confidence.

Important From Washington.
Washington, Friday evening, 7 o'clock.
It is understood that the Senate last evening, by a large majority, advised the President to accept the Oregon proposition.

EMBARGO DECLARED BY MEXICO.
YANKEE VALOR!
Washington Cor. of Phil. Del. Am. by Telegraph.
New Orleans, June 5.

The Capt. Taylor, Capt. Major, has arrived from Texas, whence he sailed on the 23rd ult. There was a great excitement prevailing among the residents of Americans in consequence of the reception of an order for an EXHIBITION ON ALL AMERICAN VESSELS.

The other came by express from Mexico, and was a Major's vessel, and the other was a Major's vessel, and the other was a Major's vessel.

The Delta leaves from gentlemen arrived in the steamer Alabama that it is the least of Gen. Taylor's intentions to rest on his arms for any length of time.

Accounts from Monterey states that Ampudia had obtained the command of the Mexican Army and retreated Arista. The Army is still on its flight and paralyzes the people as it progresses.

Our thanks are tendered to Col. Abraham Williams for a Boston and Newburyport paper received yesterday in advance the Mail.

The cost of the present war for one week would build a Rail Road from Bangor to Portland.

"Disenfranchisement."
To the Editor of the Whig and Courier.
I have suspended in the lobby of the Post Office a small bunch of Horde Grass, cut this morning from a small plot of ground, where, four days ago there was no evidence of disease, or dying, now more than half the leaves are dead.

War on the Banks.
Mr. Seth Luther, who recently tendered his services to the President in the Mexican war and was somewhat conspicuous in the War of 1846, in Rhode Island, on Monday, went into the State Bank and demanded a thousand dollars. He was ordered to leave, but instead of doing so, he drew a sword, and threatened all sorts of mischief, and was finally taken into custody.

The War Bill.
An illustration of the early intention of the movers of the Texas cause, Mr. Deane of Ohio in his speech in Congress makes the statement deserving of profound attention.

"After the rejection of the (Tyler) treaty, and while the resolution of annexation was under consideration, I am informed an effort was made to induce Mr. Deane to omit the words, 'properly included within, and rightfully belonging to the Republic of Texas, in order that the pecuniary and political might of the country, and their intended to have done in regard to the treaty."

There is abundance of ground for suspecting that the mission of Mr. Shidell was arranged with a view either to the overruling the Mexican government into a surrender of all the country to the Rio Grande, together with California, or to the taking advantage of the refusal in the mode which has been actually adopted.

As to the first cost of the present crusade, Mr. D has the following.

The expense of this conflict sooner or later will be borne by the people, and those who think our citizens have a passion for war, will find that there is no anxiety to be taxed.

Let us examine into the present costs of Texas annexation. The Texas cause has cost the United States $1,000,000.

July 1846, was covered in credit to the amount of $1,000,000.

Goodyear's Metallic Gum Elastic Machine Belting.

The favorable opinion expressed by those who have used it has induced the manufacturers to make arrangements to supply it in unlimited quantities and to make such reductions in the prices as the cost of raw material will warrant Large quantities of several thicknesses of the very best Dick and Goodyear's Metallic Gum Elastic Composition are on hand

Its peculiar qualities are 1st Perfect equality of weight and thickness, with uniformity of texture
2d No degree of heat under 280 Fahrenheit injures it, and it will remain flexible in any degree of cold
3d Essential difference from Oils Turpentine and other softening mediums which will destroy leather and produce an effluvia
4th It is of great strength and durability does not slip on the pulleys consequently a gain of 10 or 20 per cent obtained and when adjusted to machinery does not require alteration as is the case with leather
5th It is particularly adapted to machine shafts, furnaces &c where cool gas, and steam prove an injurious to leather

The selling agent is authorized to guarantee its advantages over all other machines (light grooved belts) excepted, and to state that every effort will be made to furnish belts of suitable strength and quality, for green purpose, and those who use them are earnestly solicited to communicate all difficulties and objections to several friends Agents. All orders must be accompanied by a properly answered C P H MENWAY Belting Agent for Bangor and vicinity Samples to be seen at No 10 West Market Place

10 CENTS
Of the purchase
It seems to be a great puzzle to many people how it is possible that at this warehouse garments of such richness are sold for so small an amount of money, but the reason for it is just this, that prom-bargains draw custom and a cheap trade and it is better always to do a large business at small profits than a small business with large profits. The public begin to understand the matter and this accounts for the many a sale popularity of
